

Professional Development Offered by CETE

The following lists staff development workshops facilitated by CETE staff members. With capacity to offer professional development in each of our expertise areas (i.e., standards, curriculum and instruction, assessment, evaluation), we can customize training to meet your needs.

Topic/Content Area	Context	Delivery/Technology	Audience
Implementing standards-based education	Incorporating standards in adult literacy classrooms	Face-to-face, train-the-trainer	Adult literacy professional developers, state education agencies
Formative and summative assessment	Using formative and summative assessment to inform career-technical education (CTE)	Face-to-face	CTE teachers
Classroom assessment	Using classroom assessment in CTE, adult basic education, and K-12	Face-to-face	CTE, adult education, K-12, and postsecondary teachers
Test development workshop	Creating tests for workforce development education	Face-to-face	Business/industry, education, government
Advanced test development workshop	Creating tests for workforce development education (focused in-depth on advanced topics)	Face-to-face	Business/industry, education, government
Career-Technical leadership	Building capacity for educators to be leaders in CTE	Face-to-face, distance	CTE teacher and administrators
DACUM institute	Creating expertise in job/process analysis	Face-to-face, train-the-trainer	Business/industry, education, government
SCID	Creating expertise in curriculum and instructional development	Face-to-face	Business/industry, education, government
Corrections career-technical teacher licensure	Programming for Career Technical Route B Licensure with a focus on teaching in the correctional arena	Face-to-face, distance	Correctional CTE teachers